This year, the KFA Reunion Committee is providing more flexibility for children 12 years old and younger. Since it is unusual to have more than none up to a hand full of young people at the KFA Reunion, the Marriott Courtyard is offering to allow children under 13 years of age to order from a Kids Menu at a food area directly adjacent to the KFA Function Room and pay for their meals at that time. If your child is under 13 years of age, you still have the option to place the child in the older group below on this registration form for the Adult meals at the Adult price.
